(female, Auburn hair)

Debriefing

Colonel Assefa (only person you report to)
Major Thomas (Auburn who can't stand people)
high back leather chair (sit on chair)

Assefa: Let's not do this yet, Agent Thompson

(You): <agree>

Assefa: Good, the Union ...

M.T.: How is new suit, Jack?

I'm "Jack Thompson"?

Y: this seam on skull → zipper's a little tight

MT: "Miguel Rivera", a Chicago cabbie was assaulted & raped, then 1 wk turned down by girlfriend, & dived off balcony.

Someone then downloaded his short term memory into a simulation

(Y): Custom tailored for me nonetheless

A: I was just a test. Found snooping, & weren't supposed to be alive now.

~~MT~~ MT: lucky for us, you got too drunk to jump. After deep scanning, found out what happened to your Centicore. You got rid of best target, you traced public backbone & last few hops onto Japan govt's undisclosed routers. We used sniffer to find loc of one of missing rock splitters (planet bomb, portable)

(Y): Let me guess...

A: Hong Kong, ... now.

(Y): Yes sir. [stand, take briefcase]

[note: Centicore is an implant which downloads ^{short term} memory in 4 mins, then erases entire memory in 4 msec.]
