

g = Special Investigator for the Fed Res Bureau.

Travel thru S. America for info.

Start at NE corner (Devil's Island); rendezvous at S tip

Have a compass, life-raft, & instructions on signaling the sub at main end.

South America Trek
by Conrad Button (1976)
Button House, Inc.

[Devil's Island] inflated raft, S. i { scrap of paper, compass }

read paper: { investigate each country, then go to Cape Horn & signal the submarine }

take raft S → [Atlantic Ocean] S → [French Guiana coast] { raft lost } { owned by France, economy: timber & shrimp }

W → [Cayenne] matches, S, E, W. W → [Paramaribo] { cap of Suriname, formerly Dutch Guiana, indep 1975, banana } S/E/W

W → [Georgetown] { cap of Guyana (form: Brit Guiana), indep 1966, sugar cane } S/E/W

W → [Venezuela plain] (Orinoco reg) S/E/W. W → [Caracas] (oil) trading post, E, W.

"say hi" @ Brazil
(Miss Diddlemeyer follows you.)

Jose's
Trading
Post

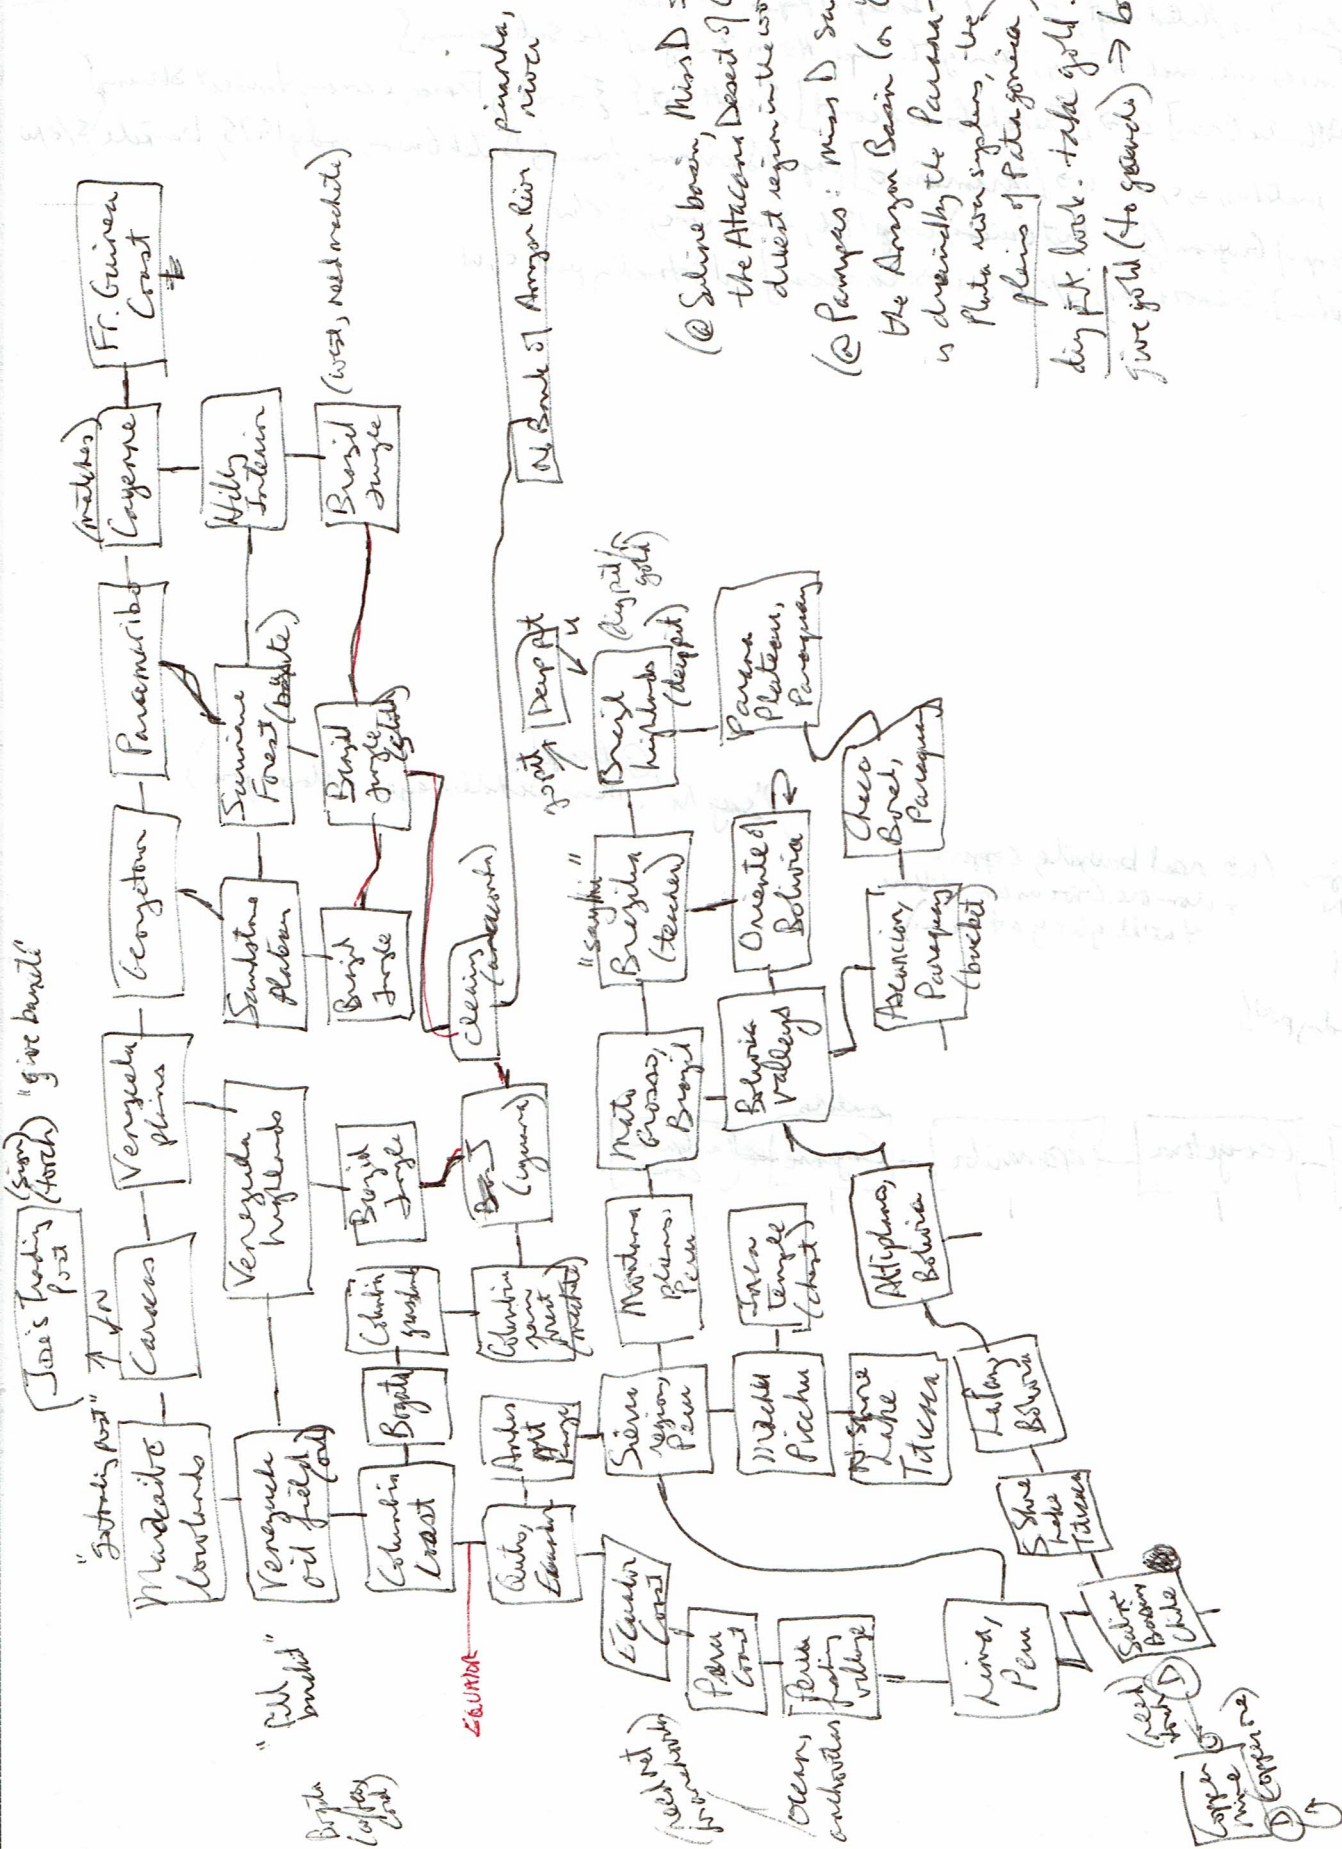

sign
N

(We need bauxite, copper & iron ore. Give us any of those & we'll give you a touch.)

go trading post

Caracas { trading post }

Signal Staff (with Jare gud)

- 1) What is the name of the highest mountain range in South America?
(not Andes) (try The Andes (no)) Andes (use lowercase)
- 2) What is the name of the longest river in S. America? Amazon
- 3) ... name of S America's largest lake? Lake Titicaca
- 4) ... largest country on continent? Brazil
- 5) ... Peru's capital city? Lima
- 6) ... Venezuela's leading export? oil (win!)

(Don't forget, Miss D will check answers)